Klaus Lederer, Mayor and Senator for Culture and Europe in Berlin, will also be present, joining Ella Rohwer from the Pro Musik association and pop musician Balbina in a talk titled »Brauchen wir eine neue Musiker:innen-Vertretung?« (»Do We Need New Representation for Musicians?«) “For a long time now, people have had to do without live music. To see how Pop-Kultur is realising a safe festival environment with an extraordinary program spreads confidence and joy,” says Klaus Lederer. For, just as pop culture would remain stagnant without discourse, Pop-Kultur as a festival needs exchange to develop further.

»Pop-Kultur lokal« starts in July

Since 2018, as part of the »Pop-Kultur lokal« program, Anton Teichmann, Dominique Schweizer and Michael Aniser have presented several events selected by an independent jury that are held in the weeks leading up to the festival, free of charge. It starts this month:

- ROHPULS celebrates Berlin's experimental, punk, industrial and noise scene. 24th July in the backyard of Reichenberger Str. 114, 10999 Berlin

- Musikií Festivalas is a 12-hour live radio event showcasing the activities of the independent internet radio station Radjio Musikií. 31st July in the courtyard of Weserstr. 52, 12045 Berlin

- Endlich creates an open-air micro-festival with music, sound experiments and art. 14th August at Plattenvereinigung, Tempelhofer Feld, 12101 Berlin

- La By'le Festa focusses their event on Afro/Latino-Caribbean music and queer culture. 21st August at YAAM, An der Schillingbrücke 3, 10243 Berlin

Press talk invitation / RSVP

On the 10th of August, two weeks before the festival starts, Pop-Kultur welcomes members of the press to the cinema in the Kulturbrauerei, offering insights into Pop-Kultur 2021. The number of seats is limited due to health and safety regulations. Therefore, we ask for a brief reply and registration: first come, first served. The venue is accessible for people who use wheelchairs. The Q&A with the programme team and selected artists will be accompanied by German Sign Language interpreters.

Detailed information on the health-protection policy made especially for festival will follow at www.pop-kultur.berlin/en
